NCCPSS Trainer Code of Conduct

The North Carolina's Certified Peer Support Specialist (NCCPSS) program requires all trainers of the 40-hour approved curricula to adhere to the following principles. Trainers

- Will adhere to the NC Certified Peer Support Specialist Code of Ethics and Values.
- Take care of learners under their supervision to reasonably ensure their safety and welfare.
- Must provide reasonable accommodations for the 40-hour NCCPSS training candidates as per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).
- Act with professionalism and integrity when promoting their services.
- Respect confidential information relating to learners gained in the course of the training event unless the wellbeing of an individual or a legal imperative requires disclosure.
- Uphold the reputation and standing of the field of peer support. They should act with honesty and integrity in all aspects of their work. They should avoid direct conflict between their private interests and their professional work.
- Respect learners, colleagues, and co-trainers. They should interact with them in a way that does not discriminate and that promotes equality.
- Must appreciate the unique and privileged relationships that exist between trainers and learners. They should conduct these relationships in a way that is professional, respectful, and appropriate.
- Provide complete and accurate information and authentic documents with respect to their professional status, qualifications, and experience.
- Must not advise or assist any person who is not a registered trainer to represent themselves as being so registered.
- Practice fair and transparent business principles, including having a process for receiving and responding to complaints, cancellation of training events, and for handling refunds.

I agree to abide by the conditions outlined in this Code of Conduct for the duration of my registration as NC CPSS Trainer. I understand that a violation of any part of this document will result in the loss of my training privilege for two years.
