Section E: Personal Attestation

I certify that I have given true, accurate, and complete information on this form to the best of my knowledge. I certify I am at least 18 years of age and have a minimum of one year of continuous and current recovery from mental health and/or substance use disorders. I certify that I will only conduct myself in ways that do not abuse, neglect, or exploit any individual served or family member/friend in my role as a Peer Support Specialist. I understand that any false information or omissions may be grounds for rejection of my application or corrective action. I understand that acceptance of this application indicates only that I have the necessary lived experience in recovery, training, and supervision to work in the capacity of a Peer Support Specialist in a provider agency endorsed to provide these services as defined by the North Carolina Division of Mental Health/Developmental Disabilities/Substance Use Services (DMH/DD/SUS). Personal information provided in this form will remain confidential. Data will only be used in creating non-identifying descriptions of those completing the certification process achieving certification. Certification status and name will be available for verification on the North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialist website at www.pss.unc.edu/certification/pssverify

Code of Ethics

Please Review and Sign

PURPOSE

The North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialist Code of Ethics was developed by a workgroup consisting of North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialists, Supervisors, and other stakeholders over a three-day meeting held in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. This code outlines uniform standards and expectations for North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialists in the workplace. These ethical standards are intended to offer clear boundaries for Peer Support Specialists in the workplace.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

The North Carolina Certified Peer Support Certification indicates the person retaining this certificate has completed the requirements established by the North Carolina Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services. These requirements may be located on the NC CPSS website for further review. All North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialists (CPSS) must adhere to the North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialist (NCCPSS) Program Code of Ethics. CPSS shall cooperate with investigations into allegations of unethical behavior and abide by the decision of the NCCPSS Program. The NCCPSS Program and the Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Use Services (DMH/DD/SUS) have the authority to investigate any potential violations and enforce sanctions. Any CPSS action or behavior determined to constitute abuse, neglect, or exploitation by the investigation will result in sanctions, including the withdrawal of certification.

VALUES

- People have the right to be treated with dignity and have their individual human rights respected.
- Self-directed recovery does happen, with or without professional help.
- Sharing our recovery experiences fosters mutual relationships, reduces isolation, Inspires hope,

North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialist (NCCPSS) Program Code of Ethics Form and strengthens the ongoing recovery process.

- Individuals have the right to live the full and meaningful lives they envision for themselves.
- People have the right to make their own choices about their treatment even if others think their decisions are wrong.
- Peer Support values the importance of community building and natural supports (family, church, NA, AA, friends, etc.).

CODE OF ETHICS

- Attention to self-recovery is critical to the performance of duties as a Peer Support Specialist(s) (PSS). When changes in recovery occur, the Peer Support Specialist will take personal responsibility to seek support.
- PSS are honest in their interactions; keeping it simple, keeping it real.
- PSS relationships are mutual learning experiences.
- PSS have a responsibility to support people to use their own voices to advocate for the principles of human dignity, self-determination, and empowerment.
- PSS honor commitments made to peers. PSS strive to always explore and ask open ended questions rather than making assumptions. PSS explore alternatives and options with peers rather than giving advice.
- PSS support people to make their own choices, honoring self-determination. The PSS does not put his/her agenda ahead of the peer's agenda.
- PSS negotiate within the relationship with peers in order to facilitate peer choice and shared power.
- PSS avoid power struggles and favoritism.
- PSS will not exploit, devalue, manipulate, abuse, neglect, or ignore a peer.
- PSS and peers will not loan or borrow anything from each other; especially not money.
- PSS will not establish romantic relationships with peers and will refrain from intimate or sexual activity with peers.

North Carolina Certified Peer Support Specialist (NCCPSS)
Program Code of Ethics Form

- PSS avoid dual relationships; when they are unavoidable, appropriate boundaries are established within the relationship with the support of the supervisor.
- PSS will not violate a peer's confidentiality except when required by law.
- PSS does not accept or give gifts, if allowed by the agency, must be clearly related to the peer's recovery process.
- PSS do not take peers to their homes; any exception to this must have written agency approval.
- PSS do not hire peers to work for them if they are currently receiving services from their agency.
- PSS's documentation in the agency record is person-centered, strength-based and done with the peer whenever possible.
- PSS take responsibility for their own professional development and are proactive about expanding their knowledge and honing their skills with continuing education and training.
- PSS have a responsibility to educate themselves about available community resources and to establish helpful contacts in the community.
- PSS do not make medical diagnoses.

I affirm that:

- 1. I have reviewed the ethical guidelines
- 2. I agree to adhere to the expected standards
